

NOW AVAILABLE:

In response to the continuing need for a child and adolescent mental health screening, early intervention and health promotion guide for pediatric healthcare providers to implement in practice, NAPNAP's KySS Program is pleased to present our most recent publication, the KySS<sup>SM</sup>

(Keep your children/yourself Safe and Secure) Guide to Child and Adolescent Mental Health Screening, Early Intervention and Health Promotion Guide, edited by Bernadette Melnyk, PhD, RN, CPNP, NPP, FAAN, FNAP and Zendi Moldenhauer, PhD, RN-CS, PNP, NPP, two expert practitioners in child adolescence and mental health. This guide, designed for pediatric healthcare providers, including PNPs, FNPs, pediatricians, family physicians, social workers, as well as other interdisciplinary health providers will enhance providers' ability to screen for and intervene early in the treatment of common mental health problems in children and teens. The content is organized in a user-friendly format to provide easy access to “nuts and bolts” information about each mental health condition and its corresponding Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-IV) criteria

*Bonus! Each guide contains a valuable CD-ROM with print ready copies of all parent handouts and KySS Questionnaires.*
